Dear Sir,

RE: DIRECTION TO ATTEND THE OFFICE OF THE SPECIAL PROSECUTOR

We write as Solicitors for Kenneth Ofori-Atta in respect of the above subject and refer to your letter dated 24th January, 2025.

We are informed by our client that a letter dated 24th day of January, 2025 was left at our client's security post for his attention. Our client had been out of the country and therefore not in his home in Ghana at the time.

The said letter has been brought to our attention on the instructions of our client who is still out of Ghana. The said letter is inviting our client to attend in person at your offices on Monday 10th February, 2025 at 10am.

Our client gave notice to the former Chief of Staff in early January and more recently to the current Chief of Staff of his trip outside the country on medical grounds. Our client is currently undergoing medical observation and tests culminating in medical decisions to be taken in due course as to the way forward with treatment. After that he will have a better idea of when he is able to proceed to Ghana.

We are therefore humbly bringing to your attention that we shall give you notice of his arrival in the country so as to reschedule your invitation to him for the purposes as stated in the heading of your letter under reference.
